

Inclusion ... What Does it Mean to You?

The past two years have been an upheaval of not only personal and professional lives, but also culturally. At BWN, we believe in fostering belonging and growth through creating a diverse, equal and inclusive environment. Our May masterclass luncheon will be centered on this topic and we want as many of you as possible at the table for an exchange of ideas about how we, as business people, stake holders, board members, and neighbors can become proactive ambassadors of inclusion.

Redefining Culture Through Engagement will be led by Kashonna Marrow, of SK Leading Forward.

This will be a truly unique opportunity to have authentic conversations and bridge gaps that may exist in our lives and work environments. Diversity is more than a package or a box to check off. Through forward thinking discussion, we can learn to better value our own perspective and those of fellow members of our community.

Additionally, this masterclass will help prepare all of us to use the summer months ahead to reflect and prepare our businesses for a more diverse, equitable and inclusive framework that will lead to enhanced employee, board and community engagement, performance, productivity and success.

Kashonna Marrow is a renowned leader in this field and this event is bound to sell out quickly. Register today and secure your place at the table. Register your board members, employees and friends at the same time to secure their seats for this important community conversation.

REGISTER TODAY and take advantage of the Early Bird savings. Bring a friend and introduce them to the supportive environment at BWN. See you there!
