

BRRR, It's Cold Outside

There are changes all around us as we start off the month of love. We can use the changes in the air to motivate ourselves, if we so choose; to be bold and strong; to spread the love.

BWN is sharing the love this month by welcoming guests to all of our events, including our typically members-only events. Have someone in mind that you've always thought would enjoy BWN? Bring them along! The $5 fee for our virtual luncheon is also waived for guests this month, and that's great timing because you don't want to miss this month's event! We'll be taking the time to get back to our networking roots - giving ourselves the chance to have deeper, more meaningful conversations. Join us, won't you?

Nonprofit of the Month

Founded with the purpose of empowering and giving hope through our advocacy for women who head up their households alone as single mothers (and fathers).

Single mothers face daily crisis and struggles, whether it be financial or health related issues. They strive to have the strength and encouragement to rise above it all to ensure that their children receive a good education, quality childcare, food, clothing and shelter. Single mothers often let their own health go unaddressed for the sake of their children's well being. The wellness of women is an important one for JLA and we want single mothers to know, that they are not alone and we want to make their lives a little easier with feelings of hope and dignity.
